CLUB VISION

ADPC envisages a club where members strive to achieve unity and commitment to the well being of our fellow paddlers in good sportsmanship, friendship and in competitive spirit.

Extract from the Arafura Dragons Paddlers Club Constitution and Rules

2. CLUB PURPOSE

The purpose of the Club shall be to provide an environment where members may participate in paddling/rowing sports in all their forms, maintain the principles of safety on the water, support the development of member skills, encourage the highest ideals of good sportsmanship, foster enjoyment of sport and good fellowship amongst the members and associated clubs.

7. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Application for Active membership shall be made on the prescribed form and lodged with any club official. Applications shall be signed by the applicant and in the case of a Junior member co-signed by a Parent or guardian. By signing the application form, the applicant agrees to comply with the club rules if accepted for membership of the club. All applicants are to read the Constitution and Rules of the club, prior to signing their application form. Upon being accepted for active membership a copy of the Constitution and Rules is to be presented to the new member.

The appropriate joining fee shall accompany all applications.

16. ADPC RULES

The rules of the Club are designed to give Guidance to members on all matters pertaining to the functioning of the club in accordance with the aims set down under Section 2 CLUB PURPOSE. Failure to obey the Club rules may result in restriction of rights as a club member, suspension or termination of membership.

The rules are designed to guide and help the members and are subject to revision from time to time as circumstances change. The Committee welcomes comments from members if the members feel the rules are inadequate, unfair or do not reflect the aims and philosophies of the Club as set out above.
